Course Description

Principles of Microeconomics presents the fundamental tools of analysis for understanding economic decision-making among individuals, firms, and organizations, whose collective decisions determine how resources are allocated in a capitalist economy. Students will engage with the basic analytic tools of modeling and critical thinking. The tools presented include supply and demand analysis, theories of consumer and producer behavior, analysis of competition and market power, and their application to social welfare and public policy. Econ 2010/201 is a 3-credit introductory course designated Social/Behavioral Science Exploration. The course does not assume any prior training in the field of economics and requires only basic algebra skills.

Course Objectives

By the end of this course, students will be able to . . .

- Understand the role of markets in modern society.
- Build and manipulate the basic microeconomic model of supply and demand.
- Apply and interpret the economic logic of basic models of international trade, environmental resource management, and other contemporary public policy issues.
- Identify the properties of competitive markets and those with market power.

Required Materials

Textbook: Microeconomics in Context, Fifth Edition. By Neva Goodwin, Jonathan Harris, Julie Nelson, Pratistha Joshi Rajkarnikar, Brian Roach, & Mariano Torras. New York: Routledge, 2019.

The textbook is available through the University's inclusive access program which offers discounted text access for those students who are willing to use a digital textbook through the Canvas course site. You may opt in to or out of inclusive access using the "bookshelf" tab in the Canvas course page menu on screen left and using the instructions available in the file titled "Access the textbook."

Teaching and Learning Methods

Econ 2010-090 is offered as an online asynchronous class. The online format includes prerecorded presentations and problem-solving videos. Questions and doubts can be clarified by contacting the instructor via email and setting up a meeting time or visiting the Monday office hours.

The course is organized into weekly modules. The modules page on Canvas will help you see the material organized by week and the associated assignments. Due to a shortage of time, one week might include multiple modules.

Each module of this course includes reading, pre-recorded videos, and one weekly quiz for every topic. There are no specific live classes for this subject.

Use the modules tab on Canvas to view the course calendar and access the course content including links, lectures, and assignments. Each module is presented on the Module Overview and Instructions page showing the objectives and organization for the week, links to live sessions and associated assignments, and housing the recorded lecture material.

Effective communication is essential to our progress this semester and you are encouraged to contact the instructor via email or Canvas, to set up in-person or virtual appointments to discuss any questions, and to reach out when the content or delivery is not working for you. Your instructor is a human being who is invested in your intellectual progress.

Canvas Time Zone Information

To ensure you are viewing due dates and times correctly, as well as events in the calendar, set your student Canvas time zone to your current location by following this guide https://community.canvaslms.com/t5/Canvas-Basics-Guide/How-do-I-set-a-time-zone-in-my-user-account/ta-p/615318

If you do not change your time zone, all due dates and times listed in Canvas default to Mountain Time.

Content written by instructors, such as office hours written in the syllabus, are in Mountain Time, unless stated otherwise.

Online Course Expectations

1. Instructor Expectations

Your instructor is your mentor and facilitator of the classroom experience and is committed to the following expectations for this course:

- The instructor will design the course to include lectures, reading materials, and assignments that will challenge students and will provide them with opportunities to learn and practice course content.
- This online course includes pre-recorded lectures. The instructor will interact with the class via announcements, virtual meetings, emails/the Canvas Inbox, feedback on assignments, and comments on lecture bulletin boards, among other methods.
- The instructor will respond to emails in a timely fashion. "Timely" in this instance means within 48 hours, not including weekends and holidays.
- The instructor will be available for individual consultation via virtual Zoom meetings, email, or phone. Students will not be required to come to campus in order to meet with the instructor.
- The instructor will provide feedback on the assignments in a timely manner.
- The instructor will follow all official University of Utah policies regarding conduct in the classroom, incompletes, and accommodations. Accommodations will be considered on an individual basis and only with required documentation.

2. Student Expectations

Though the online format allows students greater flexibility to complete their work, this course does have a structure and timeline, including due dates for course assignments. As such, the following is expected of all students in this class:

- Students may be expected to work with classmates; however, students are not expected to interact with their classmates in person. A good alternative to meeting in person would be online video conferencing, which allows students to find a time to meet that works best for their schedule. Depending on the assignment, students can also choose to interact with their classmates with whatever technology they are most comfortable with (Groupme, FaceTime, Google Hangouts, etc).
- To do well in online courses, students must be self-motivated, organized, and willing to stay on top of their schedule. Students should take control of their learning while in this course.
- Students will regularly check course announcements. The Announcements area is the instructor's official means of communication when distributing information to the entire class.
- Students will update their Canvas settings to ensure they receive timely notifications from the course.
- If students have any questions, are struggling with course materials, or need further assistance from their instructor, they will take the initiative to contact their instructor via the Inbox feature in Canvas or via email.

- Email isn't perfect; sometimes, messages sent to instructors are lost before they are read. If you do not hear back from your instructor 3 days after sending a message, please contact your instructor again.
- Students will engage with the course, students, and the instructor in a respectful and professional manner at all times.

Netiquette

Students are expected to follow the core rules of netiquette (http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html) at all times while participating in the class, interacting with other students, and communicating with the course instructor.

Please note due dates and work each week to keep up with the course. Late exams will not be accepted without an excuse from the University or a medical professional.

2. Final Grade Policy

Final grades are calculated based strictly on the weighted average of all assignments, as listed in the syllabus. Syllabus Changes

This syllabus is meant to serve as an outline and guide for our course. Please note that I may modify it with reasonable notice to you. I may also modify the Course Schedule to accommodate the needs of our class. Any changes will be posted to Canvas under Announcements.

University Policies:

1. The Americans with Disabilities Act. The University of Utah seeks to provide equal access to its programs, services, and activities for people with disabilities. If you will need accommodations in this class, reasonable prior notice needs to be given to the Center for Disability & Access, 162 Olpin Union Building, (801) 581-5020. CDA will work with you and the instructor to make arrangements for accommodations. All written information in this course can be made available in an alternative format with prior notification to the Center for Disability & Access.

    - If in-class attendance is a necessary component of the course for pedagogical reasons (e.g., laboratories, studios, or artistic training), state it explicitly.

        Use this standard language: "Given the nature of this course, attendance is required and adjustments cannot be granted to allow non-attendance. However, if you need to seek an ADA accommodation to request an exception to this attendance policy due to a disability, please contact the Center for Disability and Access (CDA). CDA will work with us to determine what, if any, ADA accommodations are reasonable and appropriate."

    [Strongly recommended] Basic Needs Student Support Statement. Success at The University of Utah includes learning about and using available resources. The Basic Needs Collective (BNC) is a coordinated resource referral hub. They educate about and connect students to campus and community resources to help them meet their basic needs. As a central location for resource referrals related to food, housing, health insurance, managing finances, legal services, mental health, etc., any student experiencing difficulty with basic needs is encouraged to contact them. Drop into their office located in the Union basement or schedule with them online for an in-person or virtual visit through their webpage: https://basicneeds.utah.edu/.

    [Recommended addendum] In compliance with ADA requirements, some students may need to record course content. Any recordings of course content are for personal use only, should not be shared, and should not be made publicly available. In addition, recordings should be destroyed at the conclusion of the course.

2. University Safety Statement. The University of Utah values the safety of all campus community members. To report suspicious activity or to request a courtesy escort, call campus police at 801-585-COPS (801-585-2677). You will receive important emergency alerts and safety messages regarding campus safety via text message. For more information regarding safety and to view available training resources, including helpful videos, visit https://safeu.utah.edu.

3. Addressing Sexual Misconduct. Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender (which includes sexual orientation and gender identity/expression) is a civil rights offense subject to the same kinds of accountability and support applied to offenses against other protected categories such as race, national origin, color, religion, age, status as a person with a disability, veteran's status or genetic information. If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you are encouraged to report it to the Title IX Coordinator in the Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action, 383 South University Street, 801-581-8365, or the Office of the Dean of Students, 270 Union Building, 801-581-7066. For support and confidential consultation, contact the Center for Student Wellness, 426 SSB, 801-581-7776. To report to the police, contact the Department of Public Safety, 801-585-2677 (COPS).

(a) [Recommended addendum] Lauren's Promise: Lauren's Promise is a vow that anyone – faculty, staff, students, parents, and community members – can take to indicate to others that they represent a safe haven for sharing incidents of sexual assault, domestic violence, or stalking. Anyone who makes Lauren's Promise vows to:

i. listen to and believe those individuals who are being threatened or experiencing sexual assault, dating violence or stalking;

ii. represent a safe haven for sharing incidents of sexual assault, domestic violence, or stalking; and

iii. change campus culture that responds poorly to dating violence and stalking. By making Lauren's Promise, individuals are helping to change campus cultures that respond poorly to dating violence and stalking throughout the nation.

4. Academic Misconduct Statement. It is expected that students adhere to University of Utah policies regarding academic honesty, including but not limited to refraining from cheating, plagiarizing, misrepresenting one's work, and/or inappropriately collaborating. This includes the use of generative artificial intelligence (AI) tools without citation, documentation, or authorization. Students are expected to adhere to the prescribed professional and ethical standards of the profession/discipline for which they are preparing. Any student who engages in academic dishonesty or who violates the professional and ethical standards for their profession/discipline may be subject to academic sanctions as per the University of Utah's Student Code: https://regulations.utah.edu/academics/6-410.php.

[The following statements are encouraged by the University for every syllabi. It is up to the instructors to determine if it is appropriate for their class.]

5. [recommended] Diversity Statement. I stand in support of compassion, dignity, value-of-life, equity, inclusion and justice for all individuals regardless of color, race/ethnicity, sexual orientation, religion, language, socioeconomic status, ability, gender, gender identity or expression, immigration status, or any type of marginalization. I stand in support of making our society more inclusive, just, and equitable for all individuals. I stand against individual and systemic racism in all its various forms.

6. [recommended] Undocumented Student Support Statement. Immigration is a complex phenomenon with broad impact—those who are directly affected by it, as well as those who are indirectly affected by their relationships with family members, friends, and loved ones. If your immigration status presents obstacles to engaging in specific activities or fulfilling specific course criteria, confidential arrangements may be requested from the Dream Center. Arrangements with the Dream Center will not jeopardize your student status, your financial aid, or any other part of your residence. To learn more, please contact the Dream Center at 801.213.3697 or visit https://dream.utah.edu.

7. [recommended] Drop/Withdrawal Policies. Students may drop a course within the first two weeks of a given semester without any penalties. Students may officially withdraw (W) from a class or all classes after the drop deadline through the midpoint of a course. A "W" grade is recorded on the transcript and appropriate tuition/fees are assessed. The grade "W" is not used in calculating the student's GPA. For deadlines to withdraw from full-term, first, and second session classes, see the U's Academic Calendar.

8. [recommended] Other important information to consider including:

   (a) Student Code: http://regulations.utah.edu/academics/6-400.php
